CTAA Meeting Minutes

October 11, 2018

CTAA October Meeting Minutes

President Gale is on the West Coast at a family reunion, so VP, Liz Bower, opened the meeting.

The Treasurer's report showed $1,105.36.

We discussed the winners from the Chicken & Bread Days Art Exhibit. All winner art pieces are hanging in the Bowie Library. CTAA winners were:

- Jesse Coulson, 2nd place - Photography
- Angela White, 3rd place – Watercolor, and People's Choice. Angela also sold her painting during the show.

More workshops and shows to consider:

Willetta Crow has a show on October 22 at the Forum.

There will be a pastel workshop, given by Janet Thompson, April 7-13, 2019, that will be held at the 404 Ranch, north of Stephenville. That is the same one Gale and Jennifer attended this year – they loved it.

October 19-21, Randy Meador Watercolor Workshop in St Jo.

There is an exhibit on NASA at the Old Post Office Museum and Art Center.

Nov 4-9, Watercolor workshop by Judi Betts at the 404 Ranch.

On November 10, there will be a "Follow the Star Christmas Art Show," at the Central Christian Church on Hamilton and Bailey in Ft Worth, across from the Christian Art Museum. It will be held from 9:00 to 5:00. Four to five Christian art groups will be represented at the show. Participating members from CTAA will be Vonnie Kohn, Rita Dyer, and Jody McCabe.

Jennifer Hammer will have a one-woman show starting January 2, and running through February 2, 2019. Will be held at the OPOMAC in Graham.

We've also scheduled Soon Warren's 2019 watercolor workshop for July 19, 20, 21. If you haven't been to one, put it on your calendar, and plan to attend.

We briefly discussed the Holiday Art Show & Sale in Duncan, OK. There are 3 categories, and dollar prizes. The Best of Show would be awarded $450. Please go to the CTAA web site for postings of that show along with other art shows.

Larry discussed the upcoming November and December meetings.

- o November 8 – We'll have Randy Oberbeck, an Air Brush Artist.
- o December 13 – We'll have the Christmas party at the Bank.

Larry introduced our guest artist, Mike Sloat, Texas & Southwest Outdoor Drone Photography. Mike previously served in the Air Force; he briefly flew as a crop duster until he was busted by the FAA for not having a license – he was only 15 at the time and now has a private pilot license; he served in the National Guard, and was also in Intelligence. He became a professional photographer in 1969 with his picture of a B-52. Mike is a freelance photographer, and has shot for National Geographic, among other famous magazines. He used his pictures and took us on a journey from the Big Bend, through MT, WY AZ, NM, to AK. He's quite a story teller, and we enjoyed the journey and his unique photography.

Artist of the Month was Rita Rae Dyer for her painting "Heaven's Meadow".

Gift Shop

The Mailbox Boutique is located in the lobby area, and is open during daily business hours of the Old Post Office Museum & Art Center. It features work from local artisans, such as:?

Ralph Field Candles - hand-poured soy candles

Jewelry by Sharon Moore

Wood-Turned Bowls by Mark Gardiner and many more...

The Mailbox Boutique provides a large selection of books relating to area history written by local and Texas authors. We also have a large collection of rare editions and first edition books. Thank you to Pratt's Books for keeping us in stock with our wonderful local history books!

Local authors include:

- Bill Alcorn, author of Butterfield Trail - a wonderful children's book about a couple of kid's adventures along the historic Butterfield Trail.

- Dean Smith, author of Hollywood Stuntman - an exciting biography about a local stuntman who found his way to Hollywood.

All proceeds from sales made at the Mailbox Boutique are poured back into our community artists and to fund the future exhibits at the OPOMAC.
