CTAA Meeting Minutes
March 8, 2018

President Gale Cochran-Smith opened the meeting.

- The Treasurer's report showed $743.29 + $35 in dues tonight, for a total of $778.29. Gale turned the meeting over to Larry, who went through upcoming presentations, and then welcomed Kathy Stout, the presenter for tonight.
- We will have the 2nd annual Art Show and Sale, on anything in any era related to Oil and Gas, from June 30, 2018 to August 17, 2018. The show will be held at the Tales and Trails Museum in Nocona. The cost will be $35 per entry with $25 per entry for members. Gale still looking for volunteers to help with organizing. Deadline for entries will be June 1, 2018.
- Soon Warren's workshop will be July 18, 19 & 20 in Nocona at the Fellowship Hall at the Central Christian Church. The cost will be $200, and $50 deposits will be taken beginning April 1, 2018.
- April 8-13 will be the Pastel workshop given by Janet Thompson at the 404 Ranch, north of Stephenville. The cost will be $800, and includes the 5-day workshop, food and lodging. Call Jackie Railsback at the Giddens Gallery in Grapevine (817-657-8691) for more information.
- There are other workshops and shows listed on the CTAA website. Larry announced the upcoming programs.
- April – Art Therapy with Linda McCarley scheduled on April 19, instead of April 12, due to members being away at other workshops.
- May – Photography with Willetta Crow.
- June – Field Trip
- July – CTAA Art Show
- August – Field Trip
- September – Larry's studio in Nocona.

Larry then introduced Kathy Stout, tonight's presenter. Kathy lives in Nocona, and Larry and Kathy have known one since the 1970s. Kathy is a Christian artist, and tonight's demonstration will be Kathy painting the face of Jesus. As she painted, she talked about her career, and the colors and brushes she uses in her paintings. She calls her paintings abstract, and uses 9x12 canvas boards, that take 3 days to dry. Kathy stopped periodically and discussed her colors and why she does what she does with her work. She mentioned that Dalhart Windberg was her all-time favorite artist. He is an official artist of Texas, and lives and paints in Georgetown. Click on the URL below, and look at some of his paintings, and read his bio.

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/1012007515564726/>

Kathy uses a badger hair brush for some of her detail work, and she said the hardest part of painting is signing your name. She does one part of each letter at a time – it seems to work. She brought two other portraits of Jesus with her as demonstrations of her artwork – they were beautiful. Her finished portrait of Jesus was also beautiful, and was purchased on the spot by one of the members.

We did not have Artist of the Month.

CTAA March Meeting

Such a great demo by Nocona artist
Kathy Stout.

Kathy is known for her "soft & misty" painting skills. In this demo she showed how she uses that style to create an abstract version of Jesus.

Only the eyes were already done
for this demo and she completed the painting AND had it sold by the end of the meeting!
Thank you Kathy!

DATE CHANGE

Our April Meeting Night has been moved to the 19th!!

Linda McCarley
April 19th

The current Vice President of the Plano Art Association, Linda has recently retired from her 25-year psychotherapy practice specializing in expressive arts therapies for children and families. When words fail to express the overwhelming experiences of trauma, loss, fear, anger, depression and anxiety; the expressive arts therapies can open the door to healing, resolution and peace.

Linda will discuss these differences and explain how the making of art helps heal and promotes well-being in people of all ages.
